

Terms and Conditions

RavenStar Outdoor Education reserves the right to remove any camper who, according to the Director's discretion, is judged detrimental to the general welfare of the Summer Science Camp program, staff and/or other campers. Furthermore, there is no refund due to the parent/guardian if their child is removed under said conditions. If the child is withdrawn due to illness at the direction of a physician, a prorated amount of the unused tuition will be refunded. No reduction is made for late arrival or early departure.

Campers MAY NOT bring the following to camp: Electronics (these items will be confiscated by the Director and returned to parent/guardian at the end of the day,) tobacco products, alcohol, illegal substances, weapons or pornographic material. Possession of these materials may result in the removal of the camper. Furthermore there is no refund due to the parent/guardian if their child is removed under said conditions.

Registration for camp constitutes acknowledgement and acceptance that there is an inherent degree of risk and possible injury by reason of the nature of Science Summer Camp and it's activities, through no fault of RavenStar Outdoor Education, it's staff, partners or affiliates. The parent/guardian furthermore agrees that in the event they (or emergency contacts) cannot be reached in an emergency situation, permission is given to the physician designated by RavenStar Outdoor Education to hospitalize, secure proper treatment for and order injection, anesthesia or surgery for the camper. The parent/guardian agrees that in the event of minor injury or illness, permission is given to RavenStar Outdoor Education; it's staff, partners and/or affiliates to administer standard care within the scope of training of said persons. Every camper is required to turn in a current health form (having a health exam within one year of camp attendance) prior to, or at the start date of, the camper week.

Campers will not be released to anyone other than the parent/guardian unless otherwise listed below or stated in writing by the parent or guardian. Phone or electronic confirmation is not acceptable.
